PCHA Chairman joins Homeless Leadership Network

PINELLAS COUNTY, FLORIDA – Chairman Joseph Triolo leads the Pinellas County Housing Authority (PCHA) Board of Commissioners and he is now thrilled to be joining the Homeless Leadership Network board as an ex-officio member.

In keeping with PCHA's mission: to provide safe, quality housing for persons in need and to cultivate healthy, vibrant neighborhoods in Pinellas County, Chairman Triolo is dedicated to helping those in need of housing and seeking partnerships with other organizations who share similar missions.

Chairman Triolo is honored to join other community leaders to focus on these serious issues. He said, "Because the PCHA is the leading housing provider in the county for persons in need, this is an incredible opportunity to work together to address homelessness issues, housing-related solutions while encouraging support from the community."

For more information about the PCHA's mission and community partnerships, please visit our Web site at www.pin-cha.org or call 727-443-7684. For more information about the Homeless Leadership Network, please visit www.pinellashomeless.org.
